Larry,
It's been great fun to be a senior
with you.
Have lots of fun in the future years of your life.
Let always remember you,
it been lots of fun.
days in Byers room!
Remember all the long teasing
I hope to see you this summer.

Always, Kris Henderson

Larry:
Well old buddy
we finally made it..
Boy that one was a stiff weekend. Hope we have more like that in the future. Boy I tell ya. It's hard to believe that well be out. Then we've got to look towards our future. And boy do we ever have things are going fine. I'm going to have a good future Well old Buddy good luck with your girl and ill see you alot this summer.
I hope!..

Your Buddy

FOREWORD

Sally Maddux
Co-editor

Carol Thompson
Co-editor

The pages in this book represent the many hours of friendship, fun, and study we put into Mark Morris this year. We hope that as you look through them, you will be reminded of those particular things that will carry a special memory in your own heart.

For the seniors, an important episode in our lives has come to an end. Our hearts are heavy as we leave our Alma Mater; yet we are eagerly looking forward to the promising future that lies ahead of us.

To the juniors, this year means a close of being underclassmen and the start of their "mighty" senior days.

Perhaps the sophomores are the luckiest of all. Almost all of their priceless high school days are ahead--days which could never be replaced by anything else.

We, as editors, have done our best to preserve the high school year of "65-66" between the covers of this Almonarch, and we hope you will refer to it with fond memories.

To Larry, my number one hero and the best basketball player at Mark Morris.

Well, ol' buddy, we finally made it. I was worried there for awhile! I'll never forget guys like you and you're no-hitter. I sure wish you and Pete could've been in the band with us. Well, I don't need to wish you good luck with Cathy but best of luck in all else.

Class of "66"

Your buddy forever,
Mike

DEDICATION

"You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

There walks among us such a giver. His deeds are done quietly, but we have seen.

We have seen a man who has time for listening, gently, compassionately, to a troubled student--time for explaining, to make a concept clear to an unwilling one--time for giving. His great patience makes the gift complete.

We have seen a teacher who, loving life himself, will convey that love to his pupils and who knows that knowledge without wisdom is useless. Therefore, though it be the more difficult way, wisdom is a part of his teaching.

We have seen a man with a granite will, with the courage to stand tall in the face of all challengers; a man unafraid to laugh at himself. He may meet failure, but he will not be defeated. He cannot choose the easy, well-trodden road, for "mediocrity" is a word he never knew; and, having chosen the more desirable, upward climb, he consecrates himself to the task.

When the impossible must be conquered, the Coach will conquer. Then, in humility, he will quietly move on and let his peers forget.

Bob Hansen. A man who believes in the goodness of life--a teacher who does more than instruct--a friend. Yes, we have seen. We take away the remembrance of one who is, truly an extraordinary man. His light has guided us a long way. He has given much. And now, when we, in our turn, could give, showy phrases and outworn words fail; now we can say only "Thanks, Coach," knowing, as always, that the Coach will understand.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

I would like to congratulate the Seniors of the Class of 1966 on their achievement during the past twelve years. I wish them the best and hope that they will not forget the faculty and administration of Mark Morris High School but will come back and visit us again.

ADMINISTRATION

When school is out, and the building is empty, you can realize what high school is. It is not the classrooms, the halls, the gymnasium, or the auditorium; it is you, the student. You are Mark Morris; you are the memories in the classroom; you are the noise in the hallway and cafeteria; you are the cheering voices at the game; you are Mark Morris. Cherish your high school memories; they will last longer than you might imagine.

STUDENT LIFE

Greg Swanson
ASB President

This has been a busy year for the Mark Morris Student Council. The officers and student body have, as in no other year, worked as a whole toward releasing us from debt. Greg Swanson, ASB president, has served us well, forming committees, heading executive branch meetings, assemblies, and representing the Mark Morris student body on special occasions.

Our vice president, Mac Clouse, also had his work cut out for him. He has been busy heading the legislative branch of the student council. Also on Mac's agenda were assemblies and working on numerous committees.

Karen Amundson, as ASB secretary, has had the most difficult job of all. Besides taking the minutes for each student council meeting, she must type, duplicate, and distribute them to advisories. She was also responsible for any tasks concerning the student body as a whole.

Our ASB treasurer has been Steve Smith. Steve has worked with Mrs. Dickson, handling the finances, sales, and projects of Mark Morris this year.

The activities coordinator, Janet Freed, has scheduled activities, headed Inter-Club Council meetings, and taken care of the bulletin boards, publicity, and announcements. She has also kept up communications between the students and student government.

The historian, Carol Zemke, has been busy with her scissors collecting all articles and momentos of the year for the 1965-66 scrapbook.

This past year has truly been a prosperous one, and it would not have been possible without all of these hard-working officers to lead the way.

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT "DANNY"

Before I came to Mark Morris, I was afraid about going to a new school where I didn't know anyone. I imagined all sorts of awful things I would find at school, and I was nervous because I didn't speak English very well. When the time came, though, I found I had nothing to worry about.

When I was first introduced to the student body, a big smile on every face made me feel calm; and I felt that I was a part of Mark Morris. After the assembly, many students told me they didn't know that I was the exchange student. This made me realize that the students were so friendly to me not because I was the exchange student, but just because they are friendly.

Sincerely, I can say that I love Mark Morris, and I think I'm so lucky to get to know you. I hate to say good-bye because it sounds as if I'll never come back, so let me say, "Until we meet again."

ALMONARCH STAFF

This year's annual class has worked hard to put out the 1966 ALMONARCH. By having a class especially for the annual work, we have strived to make a better book for the students. Since this is the first year for the class, we hope that we have laid the groundwork for a more workable system to publish an annual in the future years.

DEBATE CLASS FORMED

This year, to give debate students a better opportunity to learn fundamentals, have research time, and gain debating experience, a debate class was formed. In it the students were exposed to oratorical, after-dinner, impromptu, and extemporaneous speaking, debate, and interpretive reading. After much study and preparation, the students participated in inter-school debate tournaments at which they competed in the above categories. As an experiment, this class worked out very well, giving the students knowledge and experience, and giving the school the recognition of having a fine debate team.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

President
Pam Golden

FBLA members spent their time learning about the business world. Of several field trips, two of the most outstanding were: visiting the Longview Telephone Company and going to Portland to visit the Standard Insurance Company. These trips along with interesting meetings and programs helped make this a rewarding year for Future Business Leaders.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of having an organization such as Future Teachers of America in high school is to present teaching in many different fields to all interested students. This year we had several guest speakers who spoke on such things as teaching retarded children, and student teaching at one of our local elementary schools. Films and field trips are also used to inform high school students about this vocation.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

President
Sue McGinley

IRC had several interesting programs this year with Mr. Harry Martin speaking at one of the meetings on his travels in Russia. Mark Morris students who traveled abroad last summer also gave programs. The parties held this year included a Christmas party and an AFS party. AFS Tag Day was held on February 14, this year. SWIIA, which was held in April, was a mock Euro-Asian Conference. Mark Morris represented three countries: Israel, the Philippines, and Portugal; and all the representatives found it a rewarding experience.

GIRLS' CLUB

Girls' Club had an exciting year sponsoring an activity each month. In the fall Seniors initiated new girls at the Big and Little Sister Banquet. The high point of the year was the Tolo which had a record attendance. The other events such as: the IBM Dance, the Christmas Party, and the Mother-Daughter Tea kept the girls interested and busy throughout the year.

THESPIANS AT AN ALL-TIME HIGH

Under the leadership of their ambitious advisor, Mr. Deane Tack, Thespians had an outstanding year. They began by sponsoring "Witch Watch," an all-school Halloween party. It was so successful that they decided to make it an annual affair. At the Drama Conference in Seattle, they were honored by their advisor and one student being selected to take part in a panel discussion. In January and February they took one-act plays to two dramatic arts contests. Following the all-school three-act play in March, they brought their year to a close at the annual Thespian Party.

GIRLS' SPORTS CLUB

Girls' Sports Club, as a new organization, spent a great deal of the year working on basics: writing a constitution and raising money. The girls were kept busy selling concessions after school and promoting the annual Monarch "nitee" sale. The club also decided to sponsor a plaque to be awarded to the outstanding senior girl athlete every year. All told, it has been a busy and rewarding year.

ENSEMBLE HAS ACTIVE YEAR

The Ensemble served as a representative of Mark Morris in the community as they performed for several of the local service groups this year. Their music, which included classical, spiritual, and modern selections, was well accepted wherever they sang.

The Choir joined instrumental ensembles March 26 as they traveled to Castle Rock for the music meet. They also performed with the band and orchestra at the annual family night held for parents and the traditional Christmas concert.

ORCHESTRA

The string orchestra met daily throughout the year to learn and practice their music. Once a week the the band members jojned them to practice the full orchestra music.

Mr. Karl Spellman, director; led the orchestra in the various concerts performed for the school and the music meet in Olympia. The orchestra has done much in the cultural field and has had a very successful year.

Standing: Don Sowell, Steve Sylvester, Noel Kerr.

BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Doran Lindelien, the Mark Morris Band spent an active year. During the winter they made a trip to Arlington, Washington, to perform an assembly; then, in return, they hosted the Arlington Band, which gave a concert for our student body. They also brought in the Washington State University Band which entertained our students with music from different countries of the world.

The spring months were spent in preparation for the Southwest Washington music contest in Olympia. Also the smaller ensembles participated in a music meet at Castle Rock March 26.

The public was given an opportunity to hear our band and orchestra at three concerts given at the Kessler auditorium. Through these concerts, the band has gained a fine reputation throughout the community as well as the school.

Seated are: Carol Thompson and Pete LaForge. Standing are: Mark Lutz, Christie Herlocker, and Keith Marks.

The first play this year was "Bridges ... Are When You Cross Them." Produced by the Thespian club, the play was originally intended for a dramatic arts contest at LCC. However, due to lack of interest from other schools, the contest was cancelled. This was announced as preparations were just beginning, but the cast decided to go ahead and put it on despite this. On January 20, the five-member cast performed for an audience of about 100 people which included several faculty members. The cast, consisting of Carol Thompson as Mother; Pete LaForge as Father; Christie Herlocker as Sister; Mark Lutz as Brother; and Keith Marks as Little Fella; gave a commendable performance which was enjoyed by those who saw it.

THESPIANS PRODUCE THE STORM

The Hunter's wife and daughter entreat him to relent and go home with them.

The Storm is a tragic one-act drama about a bitter, sullen hunter who has after five years of chasing come to take revenge on Jeff Mulky for killing his wife and daughter. Mary, Jeff's understanding wife, tries to comfort Jeff through the experience.

The cast, as pictured below, left to right, was: Cindy Waite, the Hunter's dead daughter; Judy Hill, his dead wife; Pat Goodbla, the Hunter; Pete LaForge, Jeff; and Carol Thompson, Mary. The play was scheduled for two play contests; unfortunately, three of the actors and the director, Mr. Tack, became ill, and the last contest performance was cancelled. The play was given, however, for the student body April 1st.

As Jeff displays the locket, the meaning of the play unfolds to the audience. This climactic scene brings the play to a dramatic ending.

The Woman's entrance breaks the tension of the scene. The Hunter, blocked in his attempt to get revenge, moves downstage into the background.

COACH SMITH

This past season must be classified only as one of extreme frustration. To have as many dedicated players among our seniors as we had who were willing to put out 100% every game only to lose by a narrow margin was quite disappointing. When one looks back, it is easy to see that in each game a break our way would have meant that we were champions of the league.

Perhaps Tony Crawfurd's remark, "We have used up ten years of bad breaks," most aptly illustrates our frustration.

As long as we have the dedication of a senior group as we had this year, Mark Morris will be noted for good football.

I am proud to have been a part of this team.

COACH DICK MEALY

SWIMMING

Downing Ft. Vancouver in one of the last meets of the season, the Monarchs swam their way to sole possession of the SWW swim team title and culminated the season by nabbing fifth place at state out of 26 teams. Every other team in the league was sent to the bottom at least once by the Monarchs who enjoyed giving RAL the deep six twice, the second time before a capacity crowd of cheering students and fans at the MM pool.

As Coach Mealy put it, "At the beginning of the season an honest appraisal of our chances would not have permitted thoughts of a championship team. For that reason this squad can be very proud of its victory in the fourth annual MM Relays, its SWW "AA" Championship, and its fifth place team trophy in the state championship meet.

This team was characterized by its dedication, enthusiasm, alertness, and a camaraderie that has left me feeling fortunate and proud to have known these young men at this stage of their lives."

LES SMITH - Head Coach

Climaxing a highly successful season by winning the Southern Division crown, the Southern Sub-District, and placing third at district, the team sent three grapplers to state. Making the trip to Ellensburg were: Mike Gunter, champion of the 141 pound class at district; John Malone, second in the 168 pound class at district; and Ken Jackson, who finished fourth at state and third in the 130 pound class at district.

The team, comprised by a nucleus of seniors, was the second title winning squad coached by Les Smith in the last two years; the team last year winning the Northern Division crown. The squad demonstrated an intense spirit and will to win. Their efforts were not only rewarded with the title but also by the growing numbers of fans who turned out to watch and root for the home team.

Gym Highlights

Not mentioning the coaches, the gym undoubtedly housed a multitude of personalities this winter. The wrestlers liked nothing better than a roundballer attempting to retrieve his basketball from the stage; while on the other hand, the roundballers liked nothing better than a wrestler walking within shooting distance. Meanwhile, upstairs, the Goon Squad were busy shoving weights around and otherwise rattling their chains. Downstairs once again, loosely scattered upon the courts, were the gym rats and other nuts who frequented the gym in the afternoons.

The friendly rivalry that prevailed between the groups was based upon an intense athletic comradship. Without them the gym couldn't have possibly had its familiar yet uniquely distinctive "aroma" and "atmosphere"--inside and out!

Losing to Hudson's Bay in a ragged first meet, the 1966 Monarch track squad came back strong to overwhelm Chehalis. April 2, the team was only two points behind victory in the Relay Meet. As the season races past, the squad will definitely improve; and, bolstered by 18 returning lettermen of whom are a number of four year veteran senior thinclads, solidify and pose a definite threat and contender to other teams in the league.

A dynamic leader in the forest products industry, Weyerhaeuser has grown from a regional lumber producer into an international organization with plants in 27 states and 12 foreign countries. At the same time, Weyerhaeuser has refined its methods of scientific forest management to insure a perpetual harvest of the highest quality raw materials for its wide range of products. Today Weyerhaeuser continues to make lumber and plywood, but it also makes paper, plastics and chemicals which are as new as tomorrow. Whatever your plans or interests are you should consider Weyerhaeuser—the growing company in a growing industry.

Larry,

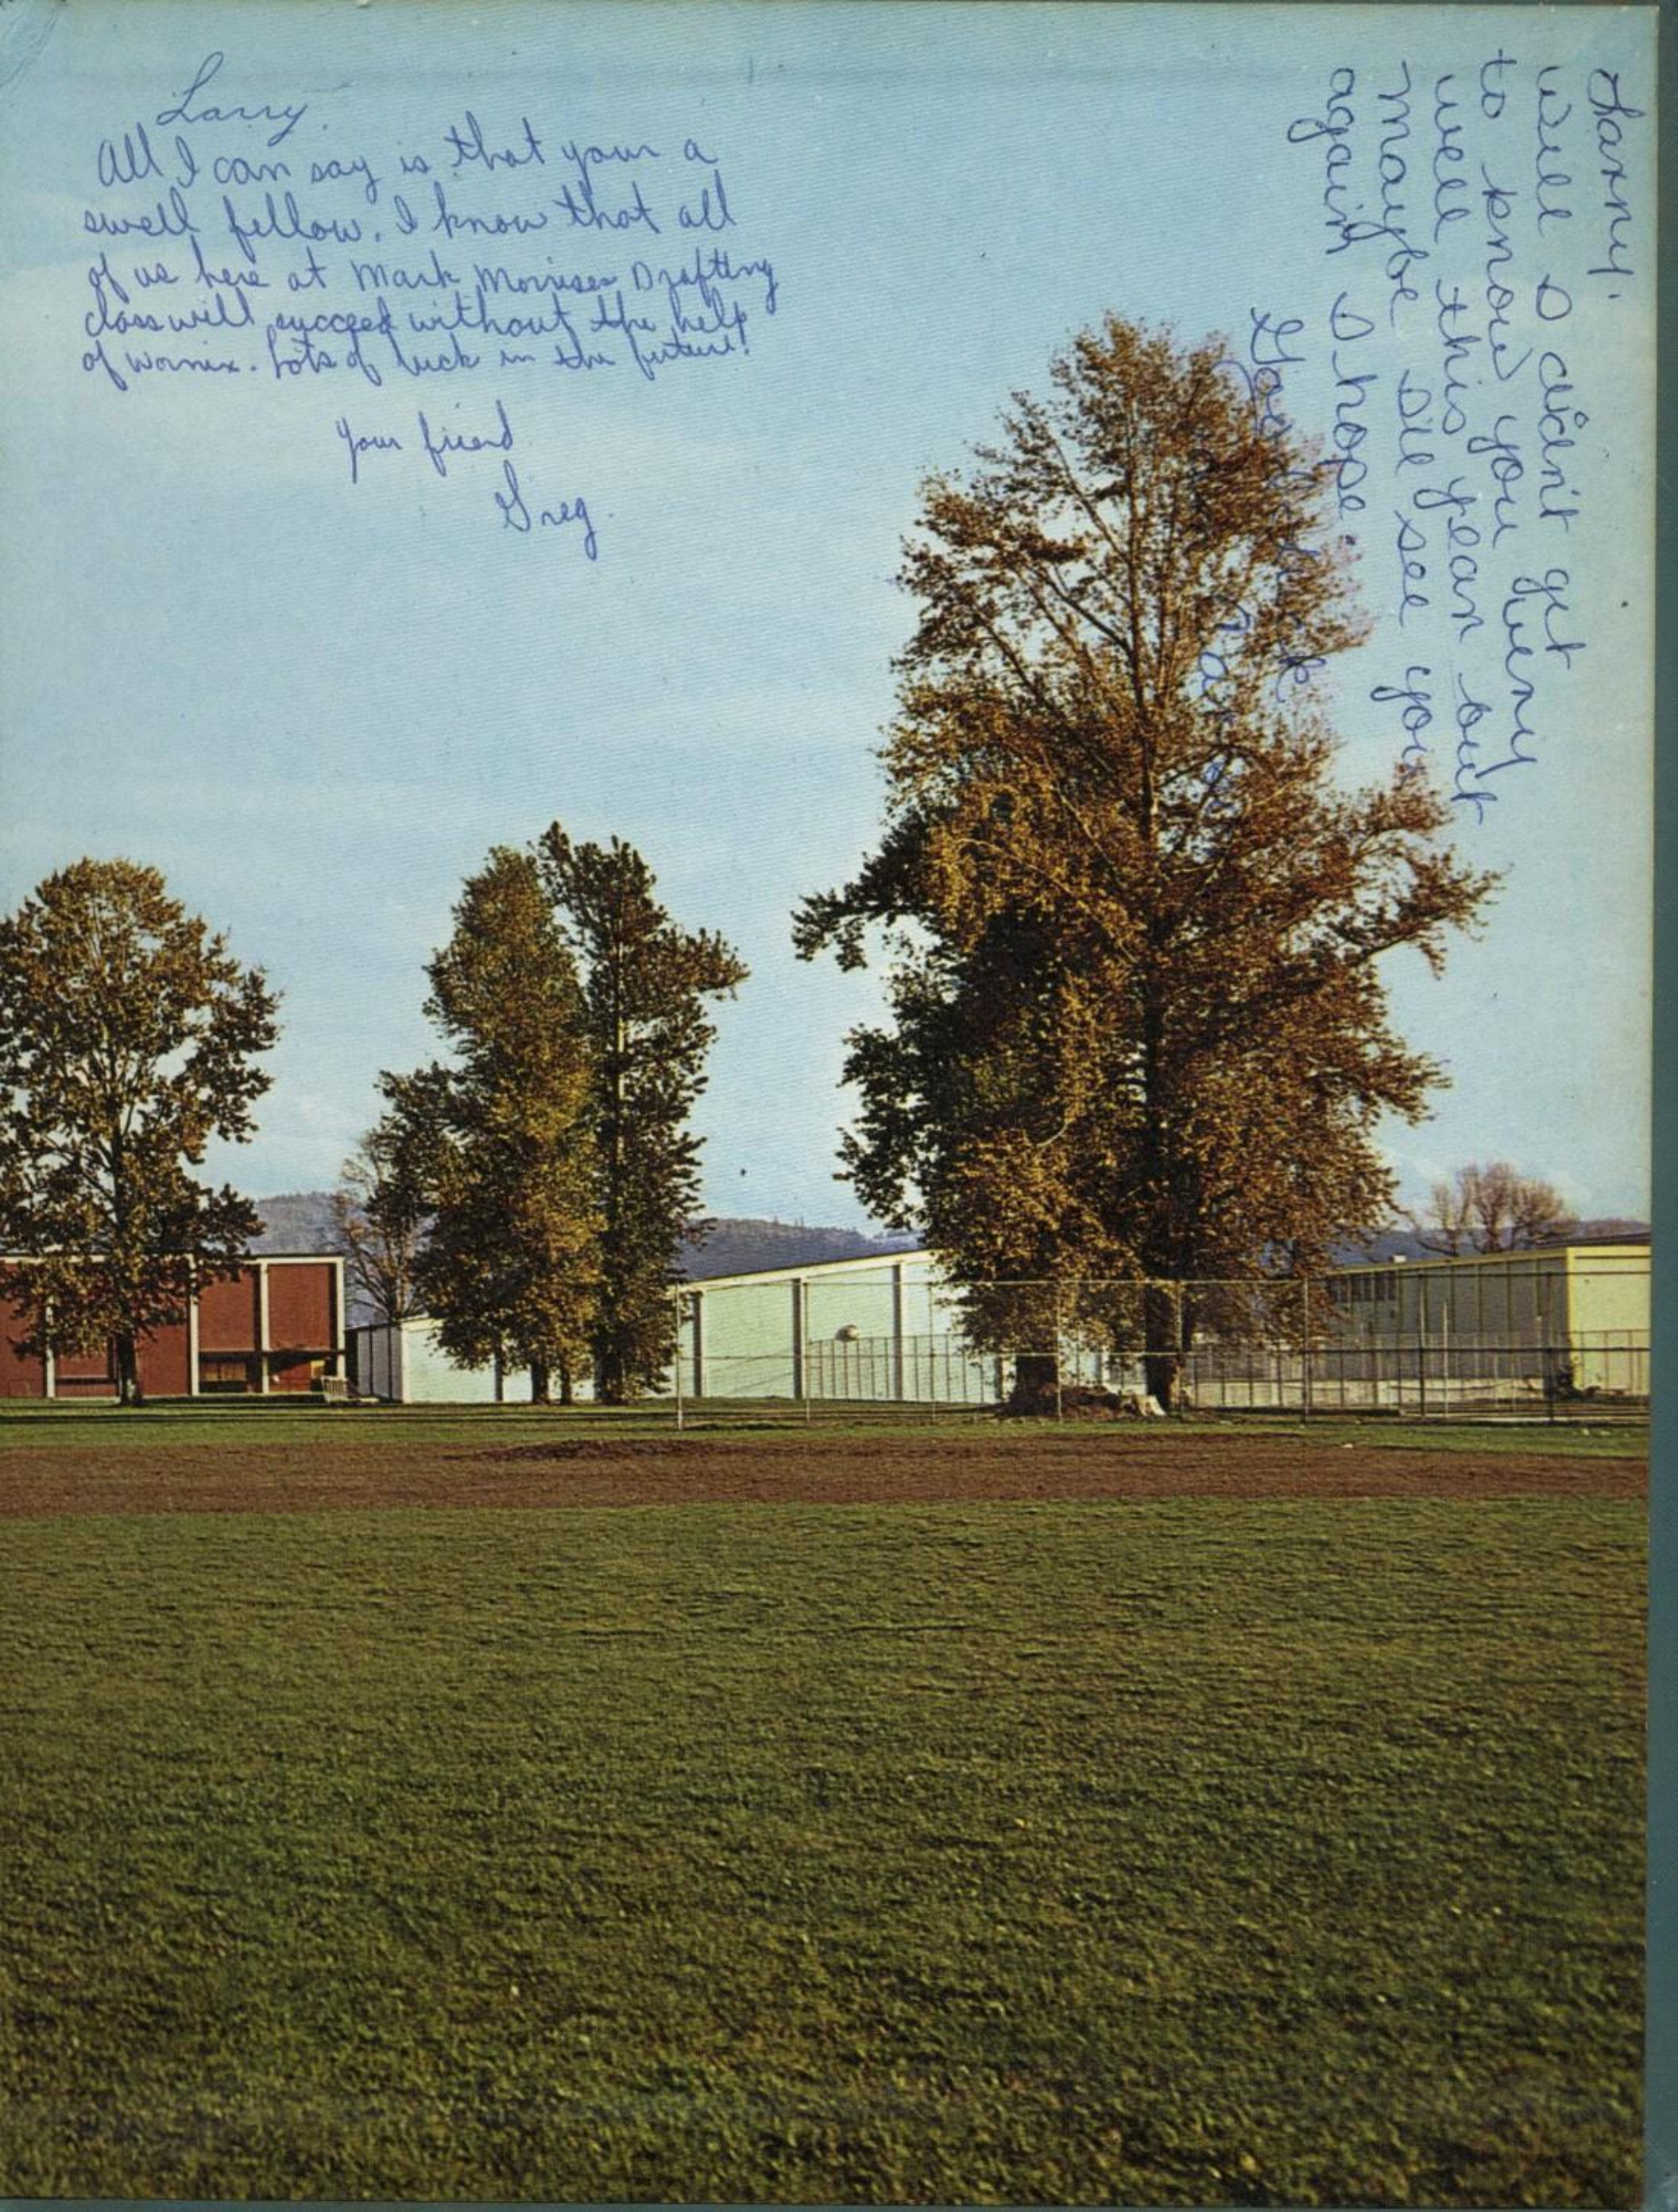
Larry.
All I can say is that your a swell fellow. I know that all of us here at Mark Morrison Drafting class will succeed without the help of women. lots of luck in the future!

Your friend
Greg.


Danny.
well I didn't get to know you very well this year but maybe we'll see you again. I hope.
Good luck
Dave
